

DEAR INTERNATIONAL GUESTS,
DEAR YOUNG RESEARCHERS, GRADUATE STUDENTS AND PARTNERS,
PRACTITIONERS AND LEADING SCIENTISTS,

This edition of the Science Journal for Smart Innovations on the Recreation & Wellness Industry and Niche Tourism is dedicated to the 10th Anniversary of European Education in Wellness & SPA & Thalasso Culture in Bulgaria.

This online platform is available to enable presentations of new books, monographs and publications of scientific papers or articles of young researchers, graduate students, practitioners and leading scientists from national and international level.

At the same time an international conference is organized with the financial support of the Research Fund of the Bulgarian Ministry of Education and Science. The scientific events are under the patronage of Sofia Municipality and the kind partnership of the Wellness Institute Bulgaria and the Balkan Cluster for Health, Wellness & SPA tourism.

On behalf of the academic staff from the Program Council and the students of the Master and PhD programs in Wellness & SPA culture, we are pleased to welcome you to this Science E-Platform.

Reviewers of the Journal are experts from Global Wellness Institute, International Wellness & Spa Council (Russia), Balkan Cluster for Health, Wellness & SPA Tourism, Researchers from Bulgarian and Foreign Universities, Scientific Institutes, Representatives of Bulgarian Ministries and Municipalities, NGOs, Owners of Wellness & Spa Resorts, heads of international and Balkan Agencies and organizations, Entrepreneurs in the Recreative Industry and Business - all of them support and participate in this new international scientific electronic platform.
